Rex Collium

THE 1959

REX  COLLIUM

Foreword

But what does REX COLLUM mean? Perhaps you have been asked this question many times and have had to reply, "I don't know."

At the beginning of this school year, we, the Seniors of 1959, reflected on how often we had been asked the question, "What does Rex Collum mean?" and decided that maybe it was time we did something about it.

It took only a short time to discover that REX COLLUM, literally translated from the Latin, means "King of the Mountains." Well, this was fine—it began to answer our question, but hardly told us why our yearbook had been given this name.

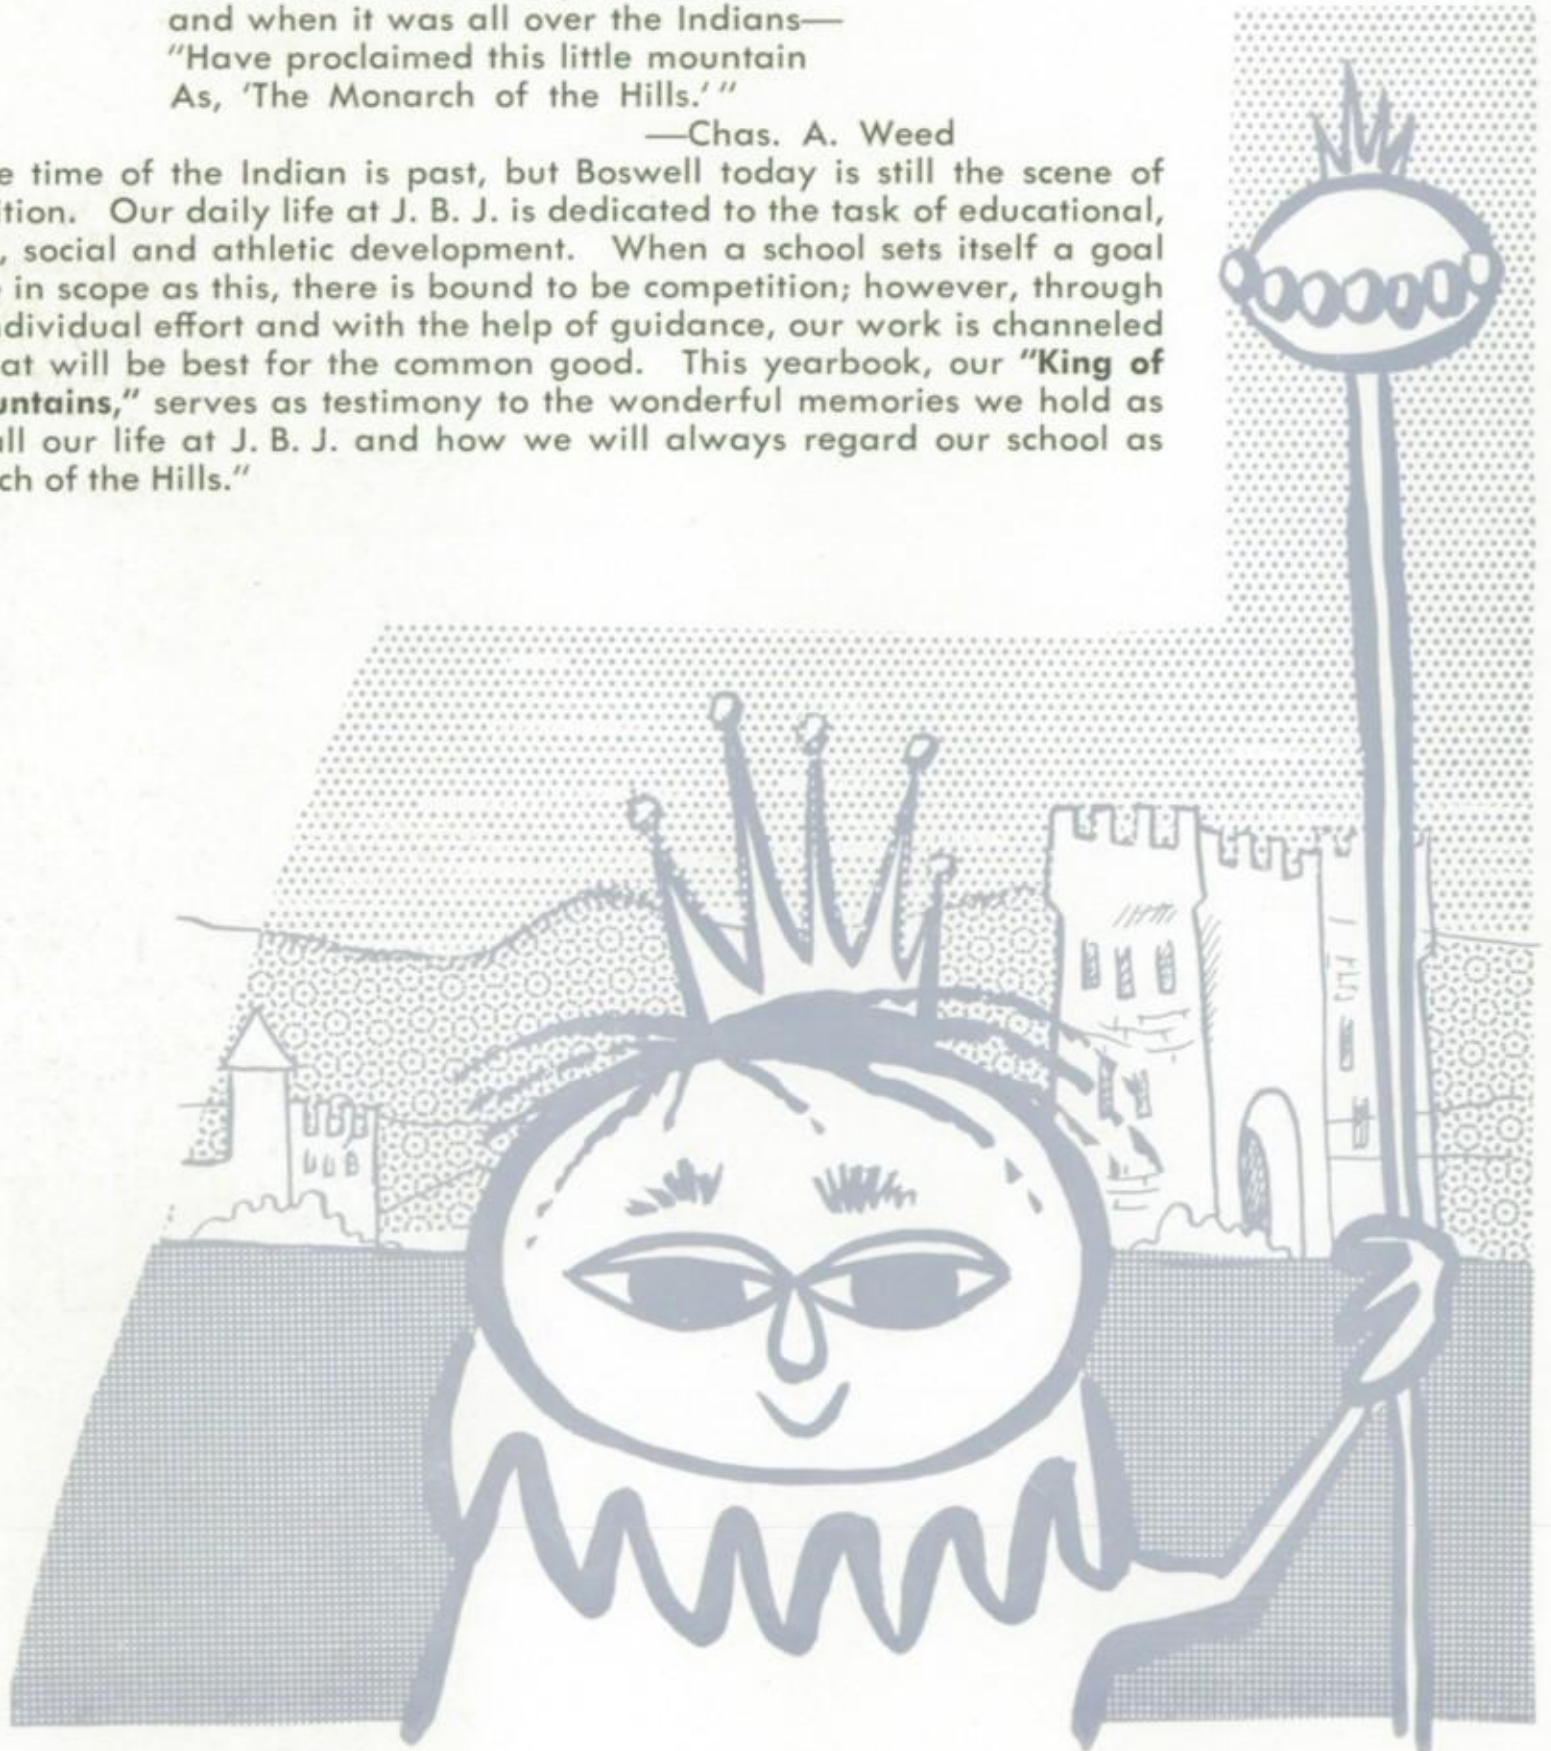

Further research revealed that in 1927, in the first issue of REX COLLUM, a poem had been written that explained things quite clearly.

Boswell is located in the heart of a range of mountains and was once the scene of heated competition among Indians for the hand of an Indian maid. Warriors came from far and near to Boswell—

"Here they raced and here they wrestled;
All their skill and strength was tried"
and when it was all over the Indians—
"Have proclaimed this little mountain
As, 'The Monarch of the Hills.'"

—Chas. A. Weed

The time of the Indian is past, but Boswell today is still the scene of competition. Our daily life at J. B. J. is dedicated to the task of educational, cultural, social and athletic development. When a school sets itself a goal as wide in scope as this, there is bound to be competition; however, through much individual effort and with the help of guidance, our work is channeled into what will be best for the common good. This yearbook, our "King of the Mountains," serves as testimony to the wonderful memories we hold as we recall our life at J. B. J. and how we will always regard our school as "Monarch of the Hills."

ADMINISTRATION

Administrators extend thee an

Graduation—a time of happiness, a feeling of accomplishment and the realization that you have reached a goal for which you have long been striving. To some, graduation from high school is just a stepping stone to higher education. For many it will be the completion of your school days, but not the completion of your learning. Whether you are aware of it or not, you have learned something new every day. As a small child, you learned many things from your parents—those two wonderful people who knew the answers to all your questions. As you grew older and entered school, your scope of learning was broadened by your association with teachers and friends. Now, as you leave high school, do not consider yourself finished with learning. Strive always to learn, because the more knowledge we obtain, the better we are able to understand and cope with our problems, thus making the world a happier place in which to live. Congratulations.

In the bible story of the talents, the unfaithful servant buried his talent in the ground; it was of no use there, it did no good there. Education is to help make the student aware of what he is, what talents he has, and the possibilities for putting those talents to use. The high school graduate who does not put to use, and to good uses, that which the Lord has given him, is an unfaithful servant of himself, his community and his country, no matter how few or how many his talents may be.

The challenge of today's world to the graduate is to be both a faithful servant and a servant of good in the use of whatever he has learned. To not use an education wisely and for good is the greatest crime of all. A better world can come only from better people.

in promoting every school activity.

Class History

It seems only yesterday that we, the class of '59" began our Freshman year at J. B. J. If we try hard enough we can look back and see ourselves as we were then. First, we see ourselves at a class meeting, where we elected Stanley Mincek as President, Aloysius Stedina as Vice-President, Madeline Palazzi as Secretary, and Robert Mahl as Treasurer. Next we are at the football and basketball games where we see some of our star players as they were just entering the field of sports. Here, we also see some of the girls as cheerleaders. During our Freshman year, our majorettes were also chosen. Finally, as we look back to our first year in high school, we see ourselves at our class party that our class advisors, Miss Davis, Mrs. Lundquest, Mr. O'Connor and Mr. Chervenak helped make a success. The party is what we had been looking forward to, and it was a perfect way to end the year.

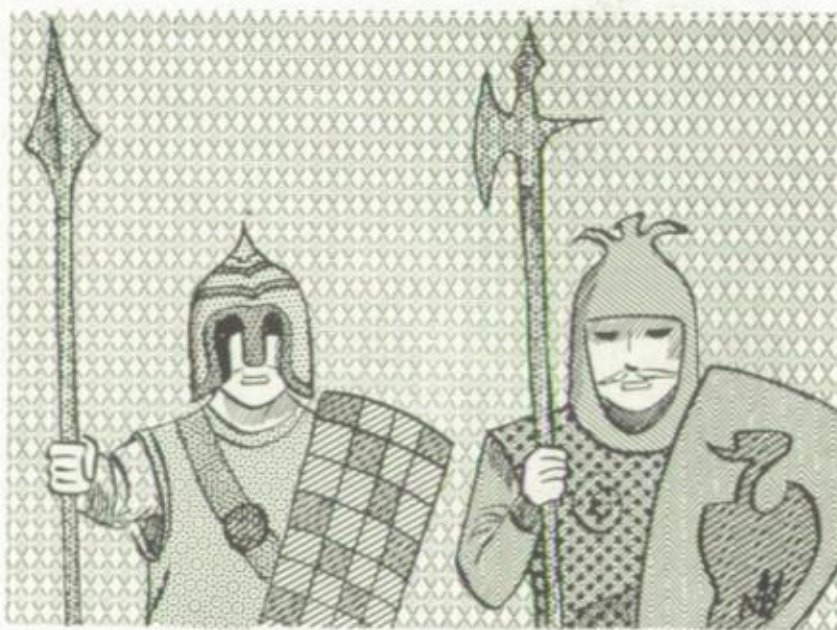

As we look back once again, our picture is getting clearer, we now see ourselves as Sophomores. Our class advisors, Mrs. Habermen, Mr. Broderick, Mr. Hackett and Mr. Kerekes and our class officers are Edgar Robertson, Madeline Palazzi, Bernard Panek and Alex Sierocky began their job of leading us through out second very successful year. It was as Sophomores that we chose our course to follow through high school and our future years. Most of the class showed their musical ability by entering the Senior band or chorus. Several of the boys received letters for their athletic ability in football, basketball and wrestling. This was also the first year we could have money making activities. Our first big project was the football dance where a king and queen were chosen to reign over the 1956 football season. Other projects were two concessions at the football games, dances and a skating party. Yes, at the end of our Sophomore year we had completed our second very successful year at J. B. J. and were looking forward to two more.

Our picture is even more clear now, as we see our Junior year about to start. This was when Darla Borelle as President, Edgar Robertson as Vice-President, Anita Sheftic as Secretary and Madeline Palazzi as Treasurer worked with our class advisors to make this one of our most active years. Our class advisors were Mrs. Habermen, Miss Wilhelm, Mr. Kerekes and Mr. Hackett. Most of the class took part at the skating party we sponsored at Latrobe and also at the concessions and dances we had. All the class helped sell magazines, pens and candy. The most exciting of our activities that year was the Junior-Senior Prom. Everyone enjoyed making the decorations for our "Evening in Paris." As we danced that evening, it wasn't hard at all to imagine that we were right in the heart of Paris. The prom marked the end of our Junior activities.

Our picture is very clear now, for we are seniors. This is the year we had been waiting for. We elected Darla Borelle as President, Stanley Mincek as Vice President, Anita Sheftic as Secretary and Joyce Gindlesperger as Treasurer. Our class advisors were Mrs. Haupt, Mr. Hackett, and Mr. Kerekes. Our class had two concessions; they were after the Forbes and Conemaugh Twp. games. We sold ball point pens, pen desk sets, letter holders and Christmas candy. Everyone worked hard to make our Senior Play a success. It was called "A Full House," and it held parts for 14 of our 600 students. Mrs. Haupt directed the play and it was enjoyed by all. Our class was represented at both District Band and District Chorus. Although we did not have a Fall Festival Queen, we were represented at the Maple Queen Contest at Cochran Junior High School by Anita Sheftic. Other important events of our Senior year were the receiving of our graduation rings and the exchanging of name cards and senior pictures. Then, in no time at all, we were sending our graduation announcements, going to our Senior banquet and attending the prom. All of us will remember Class Day, Baccalaureate and Commencement, for they were our final activities at J. B. J.

Yes, we, the Class of "59" are proud of our success at J. B. J. and we hope that our future years will be just as successful.

The Senior play, "Full House," was acted out by seniors at an afternoon matinee and evening performance.

The story was that of Mr. Howell who was away on business for a friend. While he was away there was a jewel robbery in which he became involved because his briefcase was mixed up with the burglar's. When he got home, Mr. Howell's new wife was very worried and her aunt made suspicious claims. Mrs. Howell found jewels in her husband's briefcase and she felt she should protect him; however, the maid called the police. Before the police showed up, the real burglar arrived, but was not able to escape, because, by this time, the police had showed up. When the police allowed people to enter, but not exit, it was a "Full House."

The members of the Junior Class began the year with high anticipations of being upper-classmen. They were anxious to see the year to a successful finish as it would pave the way for their last year in high school. Although their work in American History, Chemistry, Shorthand and Spanish sometimes turned into a slight struggle, there were always many social events to keep them from becoming too frustrated.

The class advisors were Miss LeComte, Mr. DeBlase, Miss Vota, Mr. Shaffer, Mr. LaVigne and Mrs. Allen. The students chose as their class officers: Maxine Griffith, President; Eugene Chappell, Vice-President; Helen Stern, Secretary, and Kathy Lohr, Treasurer.

Six of the Juniors entered the Voice of Democracy contest. They presented their writings in an assembly on November 24, 1958.

Carol Leydig won second place and Marie McGuire won third.

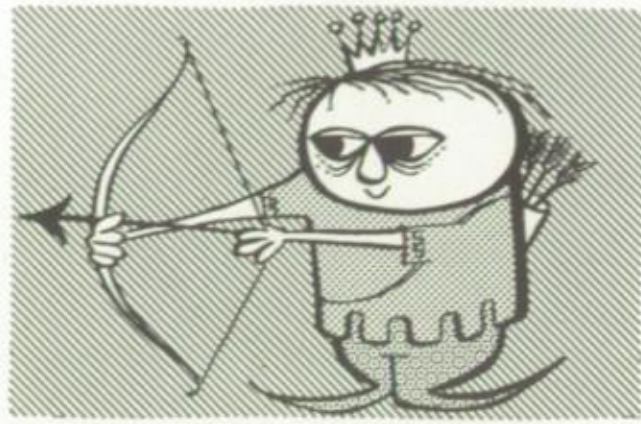

The biggest success of the year was the magazine campaign. The Juniors worked very hard and exceeded their goal by $322.69. Each homeroom passed this goal. Room #206 raised the most—$353.78. The total sale was $1,122.69. The class profit was $384.69. By selling $113.60 worth of magazines, Janet Gindlesperger was high salesman. Joe Hoffman was second highest with receipts of $110.00.

Other activities of the Juniors were a dance, the concession stand, skating party, the Junior play, and they were sponsors of the Junior-Senior Prom.

The majority of the Juniors worked very enthusiastically and steadily. Their success was a wonderful one.

Having survived the first year of their high school career, the Sophomores eagerly shed their green coats and settled down to a busy year of studies and activities. The most common subjects taken by the Sophomores this year were Biology, World History, English, Typing and Shorthand.

This was the first year to participate in money making projects. Though their treasury is small, they hope to build it up for the coming activities in their Junior and Senior years.

The Sophomore Class is very active in extra-curricular activities and are well represented in school functions.

Among the social events of the year, the Sophomores held a very successful Football dance. A large crowd attended this affair.

Jay Volk is the very capable class president and is assisted by Vice-President, Dixie Patrick; Secretary, Carolyn Blough; and Treasurer, Carol Darr.

The class advisors are Mr. Chervenak, Mr. Krupnik, Mr. Scewczyk and Mr. Campbell.

This year's Freshman Class entered high school eagerly, but somewhat shyly, for they were in the position of being almost, but not quite, members of the senior high.

One of the first tasks of the Class of 1963 was to elect their officers. The results gave them the following:

- | | |
|-----------------------|----------------|
| Clair Speicher | President |
| Dale Griffith | Vice President |
| Tom Stedina | Treasurer |
| Janice Mastillo | Secretary |
- Math, English and history are the required subjects for the Freshmen, while homemaking and art were their chosen subjects. Another item of choice for the class members was the matter of clubs at the first of the year.

Among the social events of the year were a Christmas party and a class party.

The class advisors are Mr. Fedrick, Miss Davis, Mr. O'Connor and Mr. Krupper.

With a feeling of satisfaction at having completed a successful year at J. B. J., the Freshmen began to look forward anxiously to becoming members of the senior high.

Eighth Grade

The high ambitions of the eighth grade class are somewhat hampered, because they are not permitted to take part in many activities just now; however, they have done their share of keeping busy with projects.

Many of the members of our class are active in the Junior band. Here they lend their talent as individuals to making a successful group. They are very proud to be able to contribute their bit in this way.

This class has been outstanding in other fields. One of the most notable of these other fields is that of the cheerleaders. Five of the eight Junior Varsity cheerleaders are members of this class. They are Janet Tipton, Dianne Lasky, Toni Reinholtz, Linda Pronesti and Delores Benedict. And of course, all the members of the class are very faithful about attending games and helping to cheer the team to victory.

The class held a big class party in the spring which was very successful and a good time was had by all.

Officers of the class are:

Susan Yoder	President
Gail Spory	Vice President
Janet Tipton	Treasurer
Richard Peterson	Secretary

Always on hand are our capable advisors Mrs. Mishler, Mrs. Murphy, Mr. Cook, and Mr. Drwal to offer advice whenever needed.

Seventh Grade

Election of class officers was a big event for this class who was just starting in the Junior High.

150 students makes this class the largest ever enrolled at J. B. J. The following people were elected to represent the class for the year 1958-1959: Joe Kaufman, President; Tony Scewczyk, Vice-President; Paulette Lamonica, Treasurer; Linda Sheeler, Secretary.

A class meeting was held after the election and the new officers were introduced to the group. Other selections made by the group were the slogan, the class flower and class colors. The students decided that "Hitch your wagon to a star" was a good slogan and the red rose would be their class flower and the colors red and white would help them to be loyal to their class and their school.

The outstanding activity held in the Spring was the informal party. Dancing, refreshments and the selection of a King and Queen, who reigned over the party made the party the highlight of the year.

The class sponsors who gave the class special help this year were: Mrs. Habermen, Mrs. Lundquest, Mrs. Bossart, Mr. Hostetler, Mr. Brockunier and Mr. Policcchio.

Student Council

The governmental body of our school is the student council. The aim of this council is to seek to create a frank understanding of mutual problems among the student body, the faculty, and the administration. It also provides an opportunity for members of the school to discuss student problems, and in so doing fosters a feeling of friendliness and responsibility.

School spirit always seems to be a problem among schools which are composed of students who are interested in many different activities, but through the effort of the student council, the students of our school unite into a group that supports practically all the activities which they feel are worthy of the attention of the students.

Many a student would certainly miss the council if they were to stop selling ice cream and candy at noon—just another project of the council to serve the student and keep him happy.

Always willing to learn new things and to contribute helpful suggestions to others, our school sent Kay Lohr and Bernard Blamble to the West Central Association of Student Councils, held this year at New Kensington. Through the sharing of ideas in this way, our school has become a much more enjoyable place.

Another project of our ambitious council was the procuring and decorating of a huge Christmas tree for our school during the Christmas season.

From the first rough draft of an account to the checked copy ready to absorb printer's ink, each assignment was carefully considered to see that it had all the qualifications of a good write-up.

The news carried in the paper covers all events of J. B. J. that are of interest to the student body.

A yearbook is not just another volume to be leafed through, and then tucked into a bookshelf to gather dust. For years to come it is brought out and the pictures are laughed at and sighed over. Sentimental? Maybe, but a yearbook has in it a lot of things we've put our hearts into.

The 1959 REX COLLUM has tried to keep away from lofty aims and mottos, and noble sentiments because we realize that it's the little things we most enjoy remembering. We tried to keep this in mind as we prepared a book which would serve as a reminder of our daily life at J. B. J.

Much credit is to be given to the individual editors of special staffs: Joan Reiman, literary editor; Madeline Palazzi, business editor; Joyce Gindlesperger, photography editor; Joe Farsht, art editor; and, of course, special credit to Daryle Griffith, editor-in-chief.

Thanks go to Mr. Cook, whose advice was always available when we needed it.

We hope you enjoy your yearbook for a long, long time.

National Honor Society

The aims and goals of the National Honor Society are to increase scholarship, leadership, sportsmanship, and the incentive to continue these three goals throughout their entire lives. Five per cent of the Junior class and ten per cent of the Senior class having a "B" scholastic average are eligible for membership. These students are then rated by six faculty members on the basis of leadership, character, service and growth.

This year's officers were as follows: President, Anita Sheftic; Vice-President, Darla Borelle; Secretary, Madeline Palazzi; Treasurer, Jane Keyser and Reporter, Jack Horner.

Activities for the year included a weekly devotions program and initiation of new Seniors in the fall and Junior members in the spring.

Hi-Y

To co-ordinate school activity with Christian activity is the goal in the mind of every member of the Hi-Y Club. Such goals, of course, include the attributes of scholarship, co-operation and friendliness. To promote such feelings and attitudes, the club is constantly vigilant to ways in which they can improve the school and community.

The club is under the leadership of Mr. Campbell. The student officers of the club are:

Gene Landis	President
Robert Peterson	Vice-President
John Behon	Treasurer
Dave Sadowsky	Chaplain

Tri-Hi-Y

The J. B. J. chapter of the Tri-Hi-Y is one of the oldest organizations in our school. The members will tell you this as proudly as they tell you their slogan, "Pure thought, pure words, and pure actions."

Officers for this year are: President, Anita Sheftic; Vice President, Maxine Griffith; Secretary, Kay Mahl; Treasurer, Darla Borelle; and Chaplain, Beverly Baltzer. Their advisor is Mrs. Louise Thomas.

Activities this year included teas, a skating party and the annual "March of Dimes" dance. The worthwhile projects of the Tri-Hi-Y included the sending of clothing to needy people and a visit to the Children's Aid Home in Somerset.

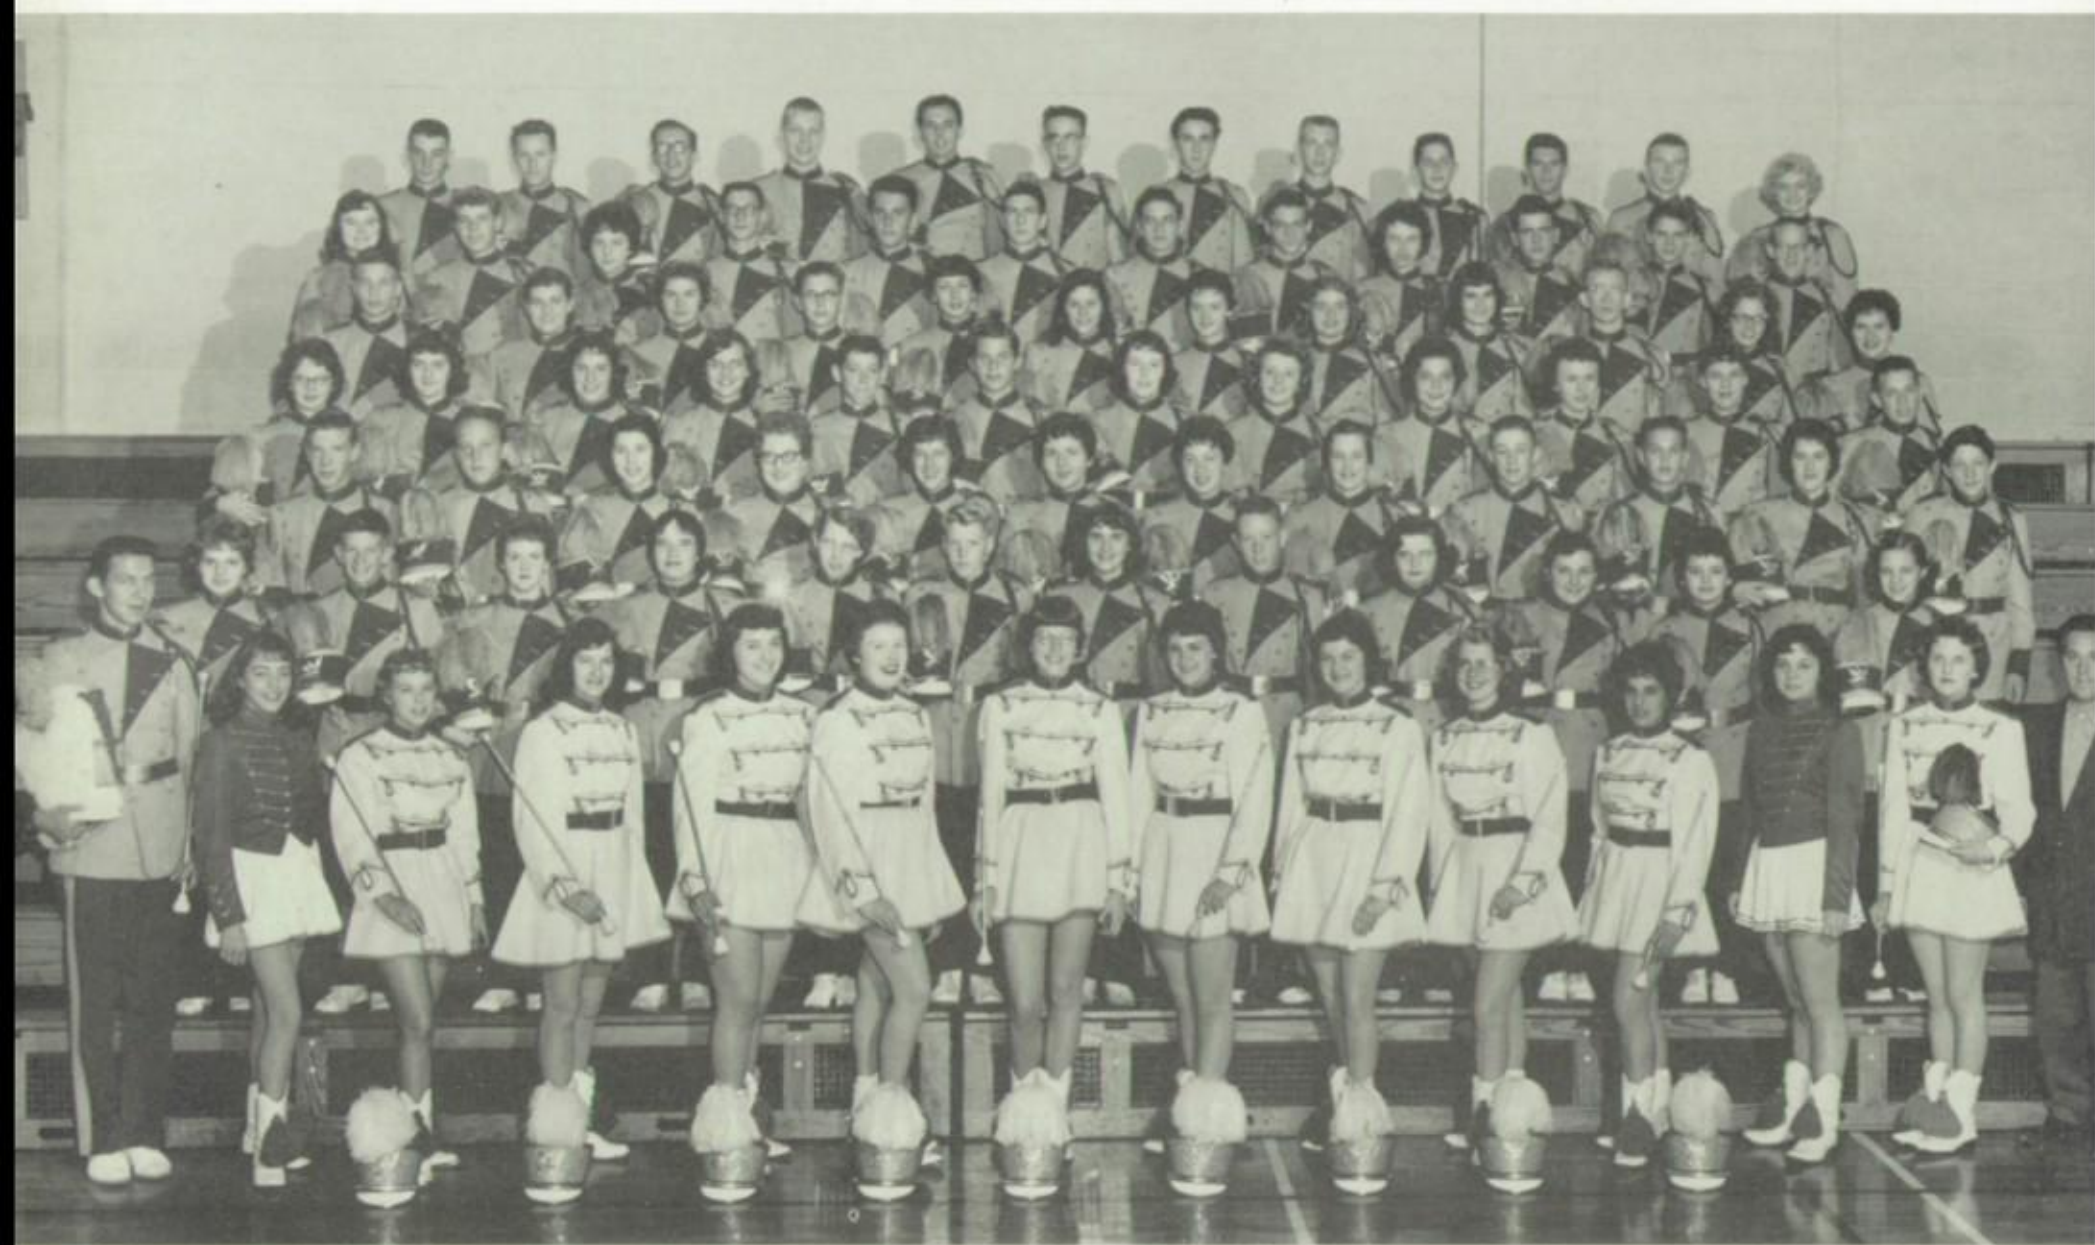

Y-Teens Club

The Y-Teens Club, for junior high girls, is sponsored by Miss Davis. The club holds dances and plays for junior high students. At Christmas, they made a basket for a needy family. The club holds discussions on various pertinent subjects during the course of the year.

Band

The J. B. J. band started their year in the usual busy way—by providing music and half time shows for the football games.

Marching along with the band at the football games and parades were the high steppin' majorettes. What band would be complete without them? Leading the majorettes was Joan Vish. She was assisted by these capable senior girls: Anita Sheftic, Darla Borelle and Carolyn Critchfield.

Acting as Boswell band's drum major and student director was Alex Sierocky. Alex deserves a rich round of applause for the very capable and competent job he always performed.

our school spirit mounted higher.

J. B. J. band on the field of action.

After football season was over, the orchestra, consisting of selected members of the band, played for the Junior and Senior plays.

The band's biggest project for the year was getting ready for their annual band concert. Much time and effort went into preparing for the wonderful show they presented. It is seldom realized by the casual observer that much concerted effort is required by all its members before a band can perform harmoniously.

Most of all, Mr. Kistler is the one to whom we owe credit for making our band one of which we can be proud. Everyone will always remember the wonderful music he furnished at our school functions.

Chorus

Participating in J. B. J.'s mixed choir provides a pleasant diversion from the daily routine of study, as well as allowing students to become familiar with the thrill of being part of a group which is able to blend their voices into a song of pleasure-giving melody.

The Chorus is popular indeed, as is evidenced by its enrollment. The group, this past year, boasted an enrollment of 190 strong. To anyone else, directing such a group would be a gargantuan task, but Mrs. Louise Thomas, the Chorus director, handled the job in her usual smooth, efficient way.

Activities during the year were numerous and varied. Paramount of the choir's time consuming activities, however, was preparation for the annual Spring Concert. This program was greeted by an enthusiastic audience who showed their appreciation by their generous applause.

And, of course, our talented group was able to send representatives to both All-County and District Chorus.

As the school year neared its end, the choir paid final tribute to the graduating seniors by providing music for the Baccalaureate and Commencement programs. A harmonious finish to wonderful years at J. B. J.

in praise of Alma Mater.

Dramatics Club

Lights! Curtain! Action! This was the cry of students of the dramatics club as they prepared to present their dramatic productions for fellow student and town audiences. Busy, busy were the club members as they pursued their interest and got near to the final moment when the curtain would rise.

With Mrs. Haupt acting as director, and the club helping with its production, the Senior class presented a three act comedy, "A Full House," in November. Never will we forget the howling reaction of the audience to the clever antics of the cast of "A Full House."

The members of the club, sponsored by Mrs. Haupt, strive to become more familiar with drama as a means of expression, techniques of acting and problems of staging. With their true interest in the theater and the desire to elevate drama to an exciting, aesthetic experience, we are sure the members of the dramatics club will continue to present bigger and better productions for their audiences.

F. F. A.

For those boys who are interested in becoming future farmers, we have our own F. F. A. Club. Under the direction of Mr. LaVigne, these boys busied themselves with many and varied projects.

The aims of these boys are to develop competent world leadership and to live up to the F. F. A. motto, which is, "Learning to do; doing to learn. Earning to live, living to serve."

Elected to assist Mr. LaVigne in this organization are the following officers: Robert Williams, President; James Reffner, Vice-President; Jack Horner, Reporter; Glenn Alwine, Treasurer; Willard Keyser, Secretary; Vaughn Baughman, Chaplain; and Nevin Smith, Sentinel.

Along with work comes recreation, and in this line the members of F. F. A. held numerous events. To start the year with a bang, the club held their annual initiation for the new members. Following the initiation a corn and weiner roast was enjoyed by all.

Early in the year, during football season, the boys held a very successful cider sale. Another money making project for the club was the sale of screw drivers.

Each year, during hunting season, the boys enjoy a game supper, for which they provide the game.

Among some of the other events for the year was the annual trip to "North Bay" and the annual F. F. A. "Hillbilly Show," which was held in the high school auditorium.

And to prepare for the future

F. H. A.

One of the school's busiest clubs is the F. H. A. The members of the Future Homemakers of America, under the leadership of Mrs. Helen Haberlen, are called upon to combine practical experience with extra-curricular activities to further their knowledge towards becoming exactly what their name implies—Future Homemakers.

The officers of the club are Carolyn Baraniak, President; Doris Sopich, Secretary; Audrey Kallman, Treasurer; and Janet St. Clair, Reporter. Two of these girls, Carolyn Baraniak and Doris Sopich, are privileged to be serving as very competent officers of the Regional F. H. A.

Early in the year these girls organized a very successful skating party at which a good time was had by all.

Audrey Kallman, one of the club's members, was honored in the fall by winning the Somerset County Apple Baking Contest with an original recipe.

Christmas found the girls extremely busy with a Faculty Tea and their National F. H. A. project, a box of clothing sent to Crossnore, N. C., to a home for the underprivileged. Complete support for the home is provided by F. H. A.

The girls decided they would forego their annual trip to the State Farm Show in Harrisburg this year.

Spring found the girls taking a very interesting trip to Pittsburgh, where they attended a fashion show at Horne's Department Store. While they were in Pittsburgh, the girls also visited the Heinz food plant.

Final activities for the year included a huge Regional banquet at Casebeer Grove, where new Regional Officers were elected and a trip to State College in June to attend the State Conference. All in all, a very successful, busy year.

Thou art taught to advance.

Nature Club

When weather permitted, the club members went on hikes and field trips, searching for rare snakes, insects and plants; when inclement weather prohibited such excursions, they stayed indoors, saw movies, read books and had class discussions.

The club advisor is Mr. Hackett. Aiding him are Bob Horner, President, and Jim Truscott, Secretary-Treasurer.

The members of the Junior Band, under the direction of Mr. Kistler, work quite hard at their goal of attaining membership in the Senior Band. Four periods a week you will find these young people rehearsing enthusiastically in the band room.

The Teen Age Book Club, sponsored by Scholastic Magazines, is a unique plan similar to adult book clubs. Each month members choose from sixteen best pocket-size books issued by leading publishers.

Sponsored by Mrs. Lundquest, officers of the club are: Paulette Mattaliano, President; Patty Schmucker, Vice-President; Judy Volk, Secretary and Rose Kozuch, Treasurer.

Cheerleading Club

Cheerleaders are chosen the second semester by a group of judges representing the faculty. Selections are based upon performances in leading cheers, an interest in sports as shown by outstanding ability in cheering. Candidates for the squad are ninth graders, but the club is open to all junior high students. Those selected will cheer at the junior high events and will later become senior cheerleaders.

The School Safety Patrol was organized to make the travelling to and from school safer. The patrol's duties are very important. They range from controlling the students while crossing the streets to assisting teachers and parents in the instruction to the children of the safe and correct uses of our highways. Under the direction of Mr. Leventry, the officers of the club are A. Budzina, Captain; S. Budzina, Lieutenant; and D. Mattaliano, Lieutenant.

Senior High Motion Picture Club

Granting to those in J. B. J. who wish to learn the proper method of operating the movie projector was the aim of the motion picture club. During their club periods the members saw several movies, discussed the movie and techniques in its making.

Social Games

A junior high club organized under the capable leadership of Mrs. Mishler is that of Social Games.

Joe Kaufman leads the club as President. Helping him are Laura Spory as Vice-President and Matthew Kowalczyk as Secretary-Treasurer.

The main aim of this club is to teach all the members how to play chess and to learn other games which will add to their resources for developing culturally. The big event of the year is a tournament in which the winner plays Mrs. Mishler, the adviser.

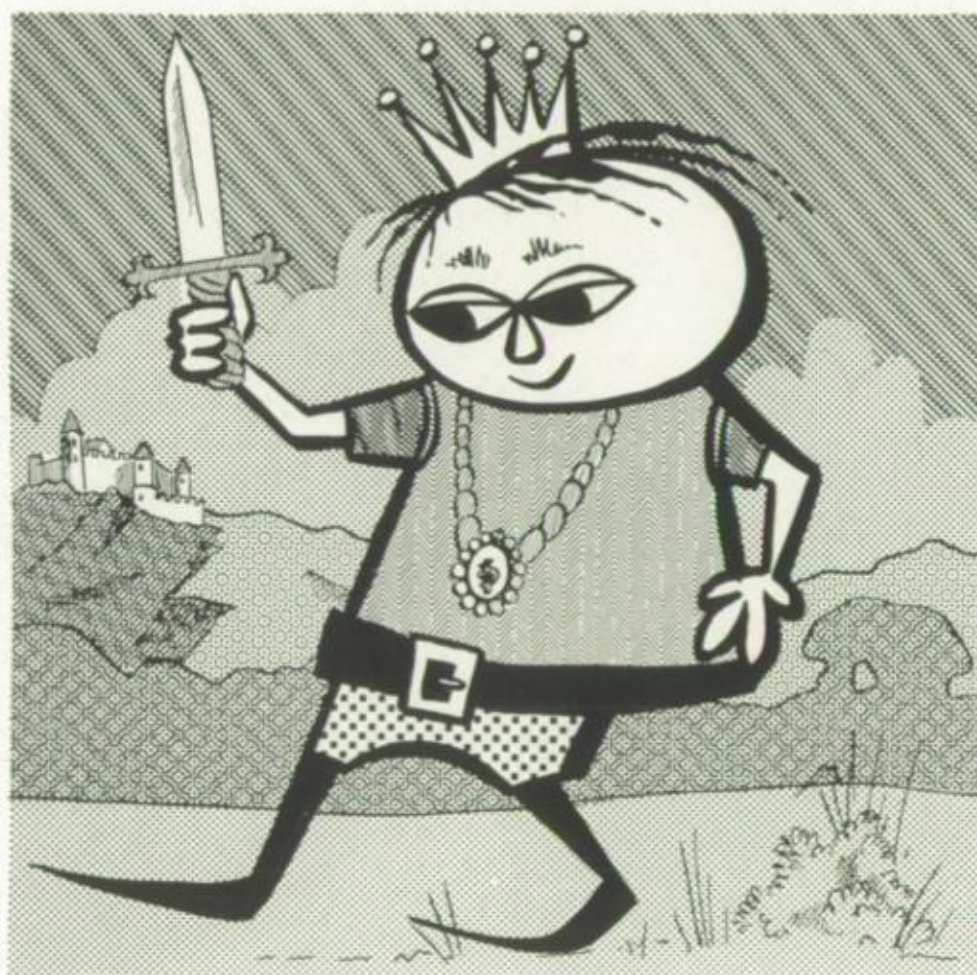

Junior High Motion Picture Club

Busy as little beavers are the students who are members of the Motion Picture Club under the direction of Mr. Hostetler.

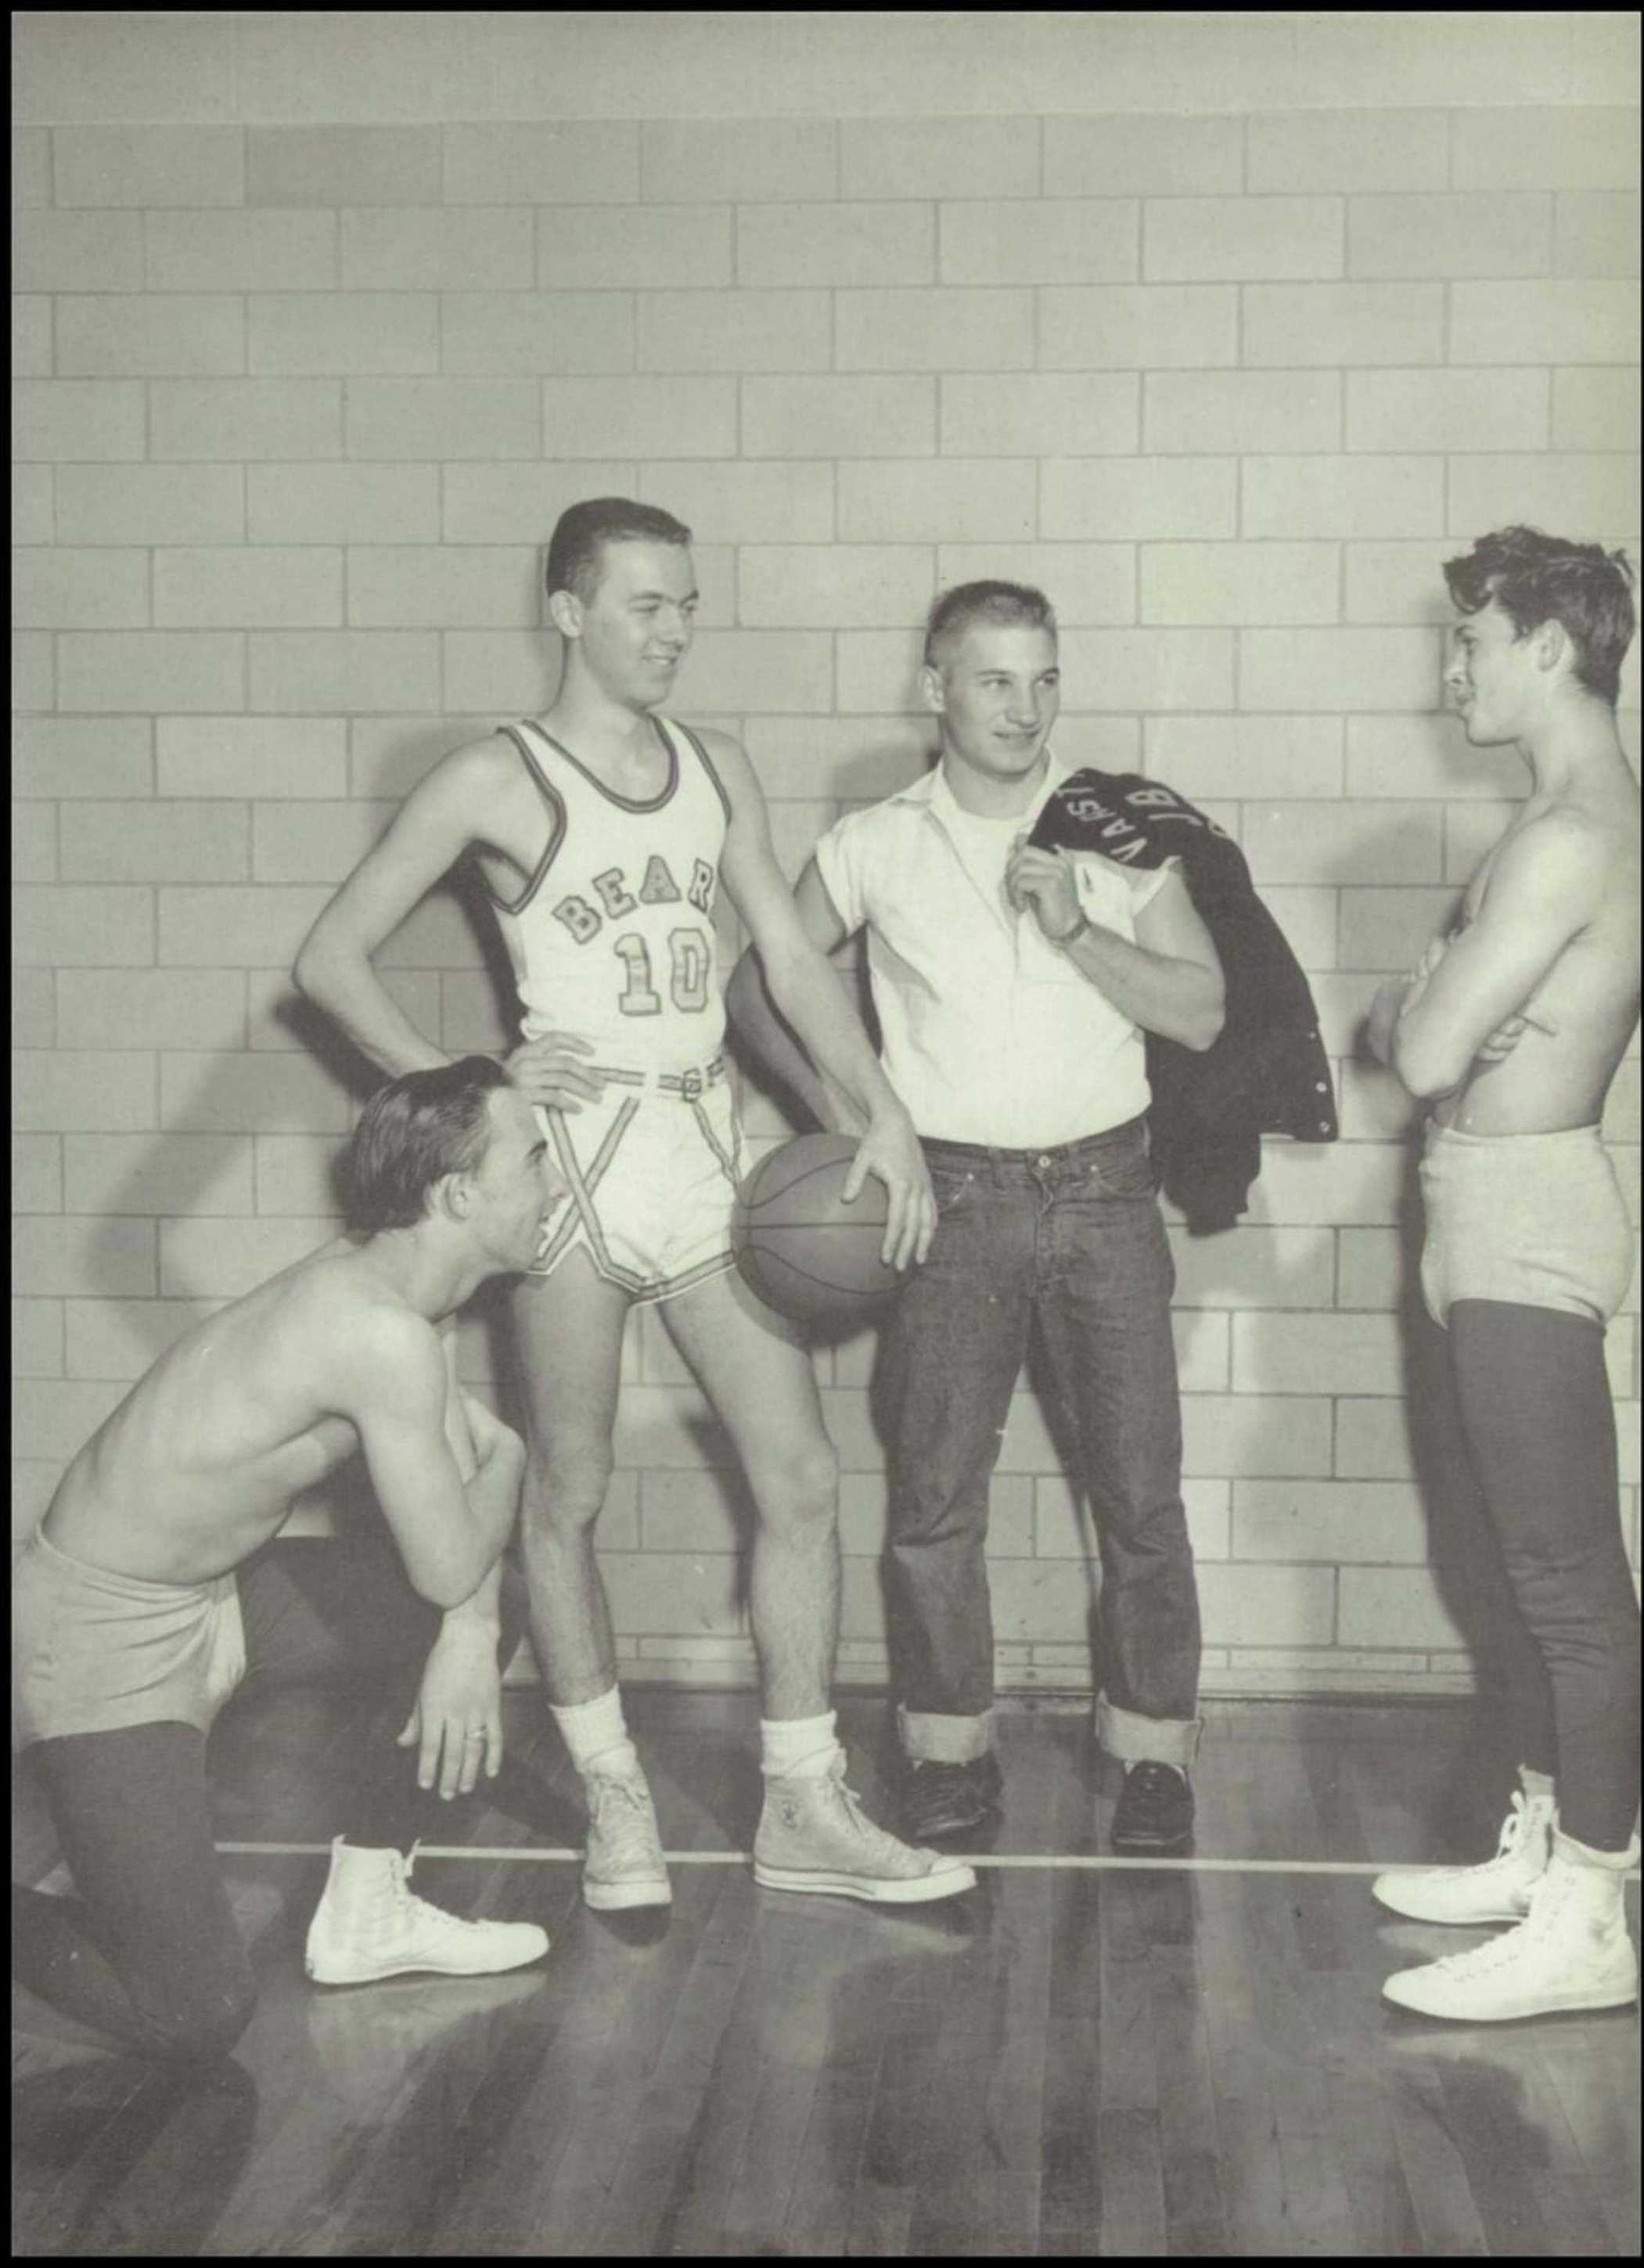

The chief aim of this club is to learn the proper method of operating a movie projector and camera. The members also learn the proper care of the machines. In addition, the boys have seen and have carried on discussions about several movies and the means by which they were made available.

Elected to assist Mr. Hostetler are officers:

Football

J. B. J. High School finished their 1958-1959 football season with one win and eight losses. The season began darkly for our team as they were defeated in their first five consecutive games. It seemed the club would rally as they won their next game by a decisive 20-0 score; however, they were not able to win their last three games. The team is not discouraged by their record for they feel it is only a beginning which will lead to brighter days. Next year's team will boast 19 let-termen with a loss of only 4 seniors.

Serving as the team's captain was Jack Horner. Head coach was Mr. Campbell, assisted by Mr. Krupnik.

Cheerleaders

A year-round job is the one which is held by the J. B. J. Cheerleaders.

Chosen on a point system, which includes rigorous tumbling routines, the girls work ambitiously as individuals to attain the smooth perfection of a well-functioning machine.

Girls are chosen in the spring of the year to represent our school for the following school year. During the summer these girls, on their own, practice very frequently. When September rolls around their real job begins. The cheerleaders must be present at all athletic functions and, unlike the members of any one team who may rest after the season has passed, they continue to cheer from one season into another.

Captain of the Senior cheerleaders is Kay Mahl. Louise Straka heads the group of Junior cheerleaders. Both groups are ably advised by Miss Rose.

Basketball

The Jenner-Boswell-Jennerstown Bears have made new triumphs in their 1958-1959 basketball season. They proved themselves a team of which our school could be proud. The Bears finished their season with a final record of 21 wins and 3 losses.

The team was made up of three seniors and ten juniors coached by Mr. DeBlase. Since our school will lose only three team members, there is hope for another championship team in 1959-1960.

The team's sixteen wins brought them to first place in the Somerset County B League. Our school then travelled to Bedford where they defeated Saxton-Liberty High School to win the District 5 Championship. The Bears were stopped from gaining further glories as they were handed a loss by Gallitzin at Juniata College in Huntingdon.

Wrestling

To many people, wrestling is a sport that shouldn't be. Wrestling is watched on T. V. and many wrong opinions are formed from the encounter; however, it is the cleanest sport known in high school and college. It is the only sport offered in which small boys as well as big boys can participate; every participant is offered a challenge, not only as a team, but as an individual.

Something most people do not know about wrestling is that it is not a grunt and groan sport. It is a sport consisting of three important ingredients—skill, speed and, most important, conditioning. At least 200 miles of running have been covered by our wrestlers this year. When the weather permits, the running is done out of doors. Using about ten different exercises, our boys have done about 1,100 repetitions of each. The result of all this work adds up to a group of boys who are physically fit due to having given freely of their time for a sport they love.

Much of the enthusiasm for wrestling must be credited to the work of the team's able coach, Mr. Policcichio.

You learn by watching.

This is the way it's done.
